

The mission of the ICCA Value Chain Outreach is to promote a balanced approach to chemicals management and product selection decisions based on safety, science and lifecycle considerations and performance, whilst protecting confidential business information.

ICCA is working towards reducing the complexity of communication, caused by the multitude of assessment approaches and by company specific criteria and transparency policies.

ICCA recommends that all communication systems are developed on the basis of these 8 features and principles.

For more details, contact Stéphane Content
Manager Product
Stewardship
Tel. +32.2.676.73.63
sco@cefic.be

DEGREE OF INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

e.g. confirmation of specific substance of concern presence

MANAGEMENT OF SUPPLIER-CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP

Ensuring the facilitation of information exchange between customers and suppliers

SCOPE OF PRODUCT EVALUATIONS

e.g. product composition information

IT SECURITY

Providing data security according to state-of-the-art requirements

USER FRIENDLINESS

Securing availability of help and guidance for data submission and evaluation

MANAGEMENT OF CHANGE

Keeping up with constant regulatory information change

TRANSPARENCY IN TERMS OF PROCESSES

Ensuring availability of tool functionalities or legal liabilities information for all stakeholders

PRELIMINARY INVOLVEMENT OF SUPPLY CHAIN /INDUSTRY

Collecting insights and information needs from all stakeholders